"I Am Navy Medicine"

In this segment of the Navy Medicine Magazine online, we highlight personal stories from our active duty, reserve component, and civilian members to showcase the diverse and exciting careers one can pursue in Navy Medicine. You are Navy Medicine and have a story to tell. We want to share it!

It's as easy as 1-2-3.

1. Write your personal story in 400-600 words. Consider answering these questions:

- What is your name and rank/rate?
- What is your hometown and state?
- What high school did you attend and graduation year?
- What is your current position and role in Navy Medicine?
- How did your military/government career begin?
- What made you interested in a career with Navy Medicine?
- What is your personal story?
- Where has Navy Medicine taken you?
- What positions have you held?
- Provide a few details about your most exciting assignment with Navy Medicine.
- What has been the best part about your career in Navy Medicine?
- If you could sum up your experience with Navy Medicine in one sentence, what would you say?

2. Gather photos of you in action at work. You'll need three or four pictures in both landscape and portrait formats, saved as jpeg.

3. Submit your story (Word document) and photos (jpeg) to BUMED-PAO@med.navy.mil

Your story will be posted on the Navy Medicine Magazine online at
